~ CREATED BY A VETERINARIAN ~

In the early 1990s, veterinarian Dr. Robert M. Collett began researching the degenerative disease processes he was seeing in his patients. That research led to the discovery of significant nutritional deficiencies in processed pet foods, particularly a lack of omega 3 fatty acid and poor quality omega 6 fatty acid. It also led Dr. Collett to develop proprietary packaging, manufacturing, and handling methods that ensure the stable delivery of fresh vital nutrients.
